IBIS Melbourne

Gala Dinner - Thursday 17 May, 2018

The Conference theme:

WORKPLACE rEVOLUTION, Blue prints for a Diverse Tomorrow.

It will bring together leading decision makers, academics and practitioners to explore THE FUTURE OF EMPLOYMENT in multicultural Victoria. Moreover, it will explore the future of income earning opportunities, and the shaping of best policy and practice through partnerships.

ECCV has now run two Conference co-design workshops which included representation from culturally diverse jobseekers, a range of community organisations, multicultural service providers and government departments. The impetus for the Conference theme was a series of recommendations to our Board from all of our five Policy Committees on the need to address unemployment and underemployment of Victorians from culturally diverse backgrounds. Programme Details will be announced shortly.
